File 2-PER

To All Personnel Attention

From Colonel Charles A. Jones, Superintendent

Subject Organizational Realignment and Command Promotions

Today we begin a new chapter in our storied history. The following organizational realignment and command promotions will provide operational and administrative direction that will be the blueprint for our continued success.

Lieutenant Colonel Marla K. Gaskill, Office of the Superintendent, will assume command of the Division's administrative functions to include: Office of Planning, Research and Development, Office of Finance and Logistics and the Office of Personnel.

Lieutenant Colonel Joshua M. Swindell, Office of the Superintendent, will assume command of the Division's operational functions to include: Office of Field Operations, Office of Criminal Investigations, and the Public Affairs Unit.

The Division's operational functions will now also include the Office of Training, Recruitment and Diversity.

Today, I am also proud to announce the following promotions:

Captain Nakia J. Hendrix to Major, who will assume command of the Office of Field Operations.

Staff Lieutenant Jeffrey S. Greene to Captain, who will assume command of our Warren District.

The promotions and realignment listed in this communication will be effective on August 28, 2022. Information on a promotion ceremony will be forthcoming.

As superintendent, I want to congratulate and express my sincere appreciation to both assistant superintendents, new senior staff member Major Hendrix and Captain Greene for their leadership.
